GENIUS MAP

This isn't a career quiz.

It's a mirror.

This map helps you name the quiet, unmarketed, yet essential things you do that stabilize spaces, soften chaos, and bring life to others.

These are your sovereign gifts, worthy even without recognition.

YOUR GENIUS IN ACTION

STEP 1: Dump Your Unmarketable Genius

- Calming people without trying
- Sensing unsaid truths
- Rewording tough feelings
- Making people laugh at the right moment
- Spotting patterns
- Remembering details that matter

INTEGRATION & AFFIRMATION

TAG YOUR SOUL SKILLS

Choose 3–5 traits and write them on tags or sticky notes. Put them:

- On your mirror
- In your wallet
- On your phone lock screen
- As playlist names
- Or voice-record them as reminders

Each one is a soul flashcard that says: “This is mine. It’s not for sale.” Reflect:

- Which gifts survived burnout or silence?
- What did I do before I was performing?
- If no one paid me, would I still keep these?
- What kind of world would celebrate these gifts?

MANTRA BOX:

I am not here to be useful in the way the world demands. I carry a kind of genius that cannot be priced. This is not a skillset, it’s a signal. And today, I choose to see it.
